Work Field Politics | DAFG-Series Politics in Dialogue

In 2011 the German-Arab-Friendship Association (DAFG) launched its series Politics in Dialogue in which politicians from Germany and the Arab world are invited on a regular basis to talk about current issues of German-Arab relations and have discussions with the audience. Against this background, the DAFG cordially invites you to the following lecture:

Thomas Silberhorn (CSU)

Parliamentary State Secretary to the Federal Minister for Economic Cooperation and Development

The Arab World in 2017 Germany's Development Cooperation after the Arab Spring

Wednesday, 15 February 2017, at 6:00 p.m.

at the DAFG Office
Friedrichstr. 185 (Kontorhaus), 10117 Berlin

Language: English

Thomas Silberhorn has been member of the German Bundestag for the constituency of Bamberg-Forchheim since 2002. Since 2014 he has been Parliamentary State Secretary at the Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development with a regional focus on Africa and the MENA region. He was Deputy Chairman of the CDU/CSU parliamentary group for internal and legal affairs and consumer protection. From 2005 to 2013 he was Spokesperson on foreign affairs, defence, EU-related matters, economic cooperation and development, human rights and humanitarian assistance for the CSU Regional Group within the German Bundestag. Thomas Silberhorn is a member of the Council of Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik (German Institute for International and Security Affairs) and of the Foundation Board of the German Foundation for Peace Research.
