

Invitation to an Expert Meeting in Berlin

for an exchange of experiences to develop a concept on “studying as a refugee” for Universities in Jordan.

On 19 April 2017 from 3pm to 8pm
In GIZ Berlin Representation, (GIZ Haus), Reichpietschufer 20, 10785 Berlin

15:00 Welcome and introduction: The current situation in Jordan

Henner Kirchner, GIZ Jordan, Head of Project, JOSY

Concrete offers of the German Jordanian University (GJU) and the needs of universities in Jordan

Dr. Jochen Pleines, former Dean, School of Appl. Humanities and Languages, GJU

Christoph Mühlberg, Senior Policy Advisor to the President, GJU

Offers and best practices in and from Germany

„Academic integration of refugees: the initiative of UAS Magdeburg-Stendal“,

Prof. Dr. Anne Lequy, Rector UAS Magdeburg-Stendal

15:30 Coffee break

16:00 Panel discussion

- Henner Kirchner, GIZ, JOSY
- Dr. Sahar Almakhamreh, Head of Social Work Department, School of Applied Humanities and Languages, German Jordanian University
- Golrokh Ansari-Khah, Team leader JOSY, Section Scholarships Middle East, North Africa, DAAD
- Maren Kroeger, Tertiary Education Officer, Division of International Protection, UNHCR
- Honorary Prof. Dr. Matthias Weiter, Humboldt University Berlin, Faculty of Life Sciences HU-Berlin, DAFG
- Paula Schwarz, Founder Startupboat; “Startupboat scouts for the most impactful coding schools for refugees in the middle east”

16:45 Open discussion

Integration of refugees in Germany and Jordan: strengthening the role of universities as „humanitarian actors“?

18:00 Summarizing results

18:30 Reception

Moderation: Ahmet Emre Açar, Chief Learning Officer & founder Mind-Ex GmbH

Registration:

Martina Meyer

giz | Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

Reichpietschufer 20

10785 Berlin

T: +49 30 72614-419

E: JOSY-Berlin@giz.de